Children from Pentecost Church Edmonton Assembly

It is Sefaa's first day at school.

Sefaa is six years old. Everybody says she should go to school. Granma says Sefaa shall go to school. Grandpa says Sefaa shall go to school.

Auntie Yeboaa says, “Sefaa will go to school tomorrow. Tomorrow is the beginning of the school year.”

Uncle Elijah says Sefaa should do the six-year-old test. Sefaa puts her left hand on the center of her head and tries to touch the lower tip of her ear with her fingers.

“Alright Sefaa” Uncle Elijah says, “you can go to school.”

Sefaa is happy she can do the six-year-old test, but she is not sure she can go to school. Sefaa talks to Auntie Yeboaa about what school is all about.

“Auntie, is school like Sunday School?” she asks.

“Yes, it is, but you will go to school for five days in a week. You will spend more hours in school than what you do at Sunday school” Auntie responds.
